

4. (a) Give a complete account of the following forms:—
hæleð, hæle; gefeh; selra, sel; forspéon.

(b) Write notes on the etymology of the following, indicating all points of importance in the development of form or meaning:—éowdon, duguð, neorxnawang, sincald, scéat, orméte, níobedd, ednœwe, oferméitto, údwita, mundbora.

5. What processes of noun-formation are illustrated by the following words:—miltse, dryre, hætu, bléd, gebred, frymþu, stenc, gereord, gedwolgod, brytta, æfþunca?

6. What part is played by the following persons in Beowulf: Unferð, Wealhþeow, Wiglaf, Yrmenlaf, Aeschere, Ongenþeow?

7. Discuss the arguments for and against the Scandinavian origin of the Beowulf-legend. What traces of Scandinavian legend does it incidentally contain?

8. In what points, metrical and linguistic, does Genesis B (as represented by the extract in the Reader) diverge from the normal types of OE. poetry?

Summarize what is known of its origin.

9. Give a succinct account of the literary life and work of King Alfred, with special reference to the books represented in the Reader.

10. Compare in detail either (a) the style of Ælfric with that of Wulfstan, or (b) the style of Beowulf with that of the Judith.

[T. T. 1899.]

1899.

Honour School of English Language and Literature.

GOTHIC. OLD ENGLISH AND MIDDLE ENGLISH TRANSLATIONS.

1. Translate:—

(a) Jah qemun at imma uslijan bairandans, hafana fram fidworim. Jah ni magandans nehwa qiman imma faura manageim, andhulidenedun hrot þarei was Jesus, jah usgrabandans insailidenedun þata badi, jah fralailotun ana þammei lag sa uslija. Gasaihwands þan Jesus galaubein ize qaf du þamma usliþin: barnilo, afletanda þus frawaurh-teis þeinost.

Give the O.E. for qemun, hafana, badi, jamma.

(b) Jah usleiþandin Iesua in skipa aftra hindar marein, gaqemun sik manageins filu du imma, jah was faura marein.
Make notes upon the syntax in this verse. Account for the gender and declension of marein.

(c) Jah jabai fotus þeins marzjai þuk, afmait ina; goþ þus ist galeiþan in libain haltamma, þau twans fotuns habandin gawairpan in gaiainnan, in fon þata unhwap-nando, þarei maþa ize ni gaswiltiþ jah fon ni afhwapniþ.
What is the pret. of afmait, afhwapniþ? Give the genitive of fon. Make a note upon the vowel in þus. To which declension did fotus originally belong?

(d) Iþ eis qimandans qeþun du imma: laisari, witum þatei sunjeins is jah ni kara þuk manshun; ni auk saihwis in andwairþja manne, ak bi sunjai wig guþs laiseis: skuldu ist kaisaragild giban kaisara, þau niu gibaima?
Make a note upon ni kara þuk manshun. Give the O.E. for qeþun, auk, saihwis, laiseis.

(e) Jah þiwi gasaihwandei ina aftra dugann qíþan þaim faurastandardam, þatei sa þizei ist. Iþ is aftra laug-nida. Jah afar leitil aftra þai atstandardans qeþun du Paitrau: bi sunjai, þizei is; jah auk razda þeina galeika ist. Iþ is dugann afaikan jah swaran þatei ni kann þana mannan þanei qíþiþ. Jah anþaramma sinþa hana wopida. Jah gamunda Paitrus þata waurd, swe qaf imma Jesus, þatei faurþize hana hrukjai twaim sinþam, inwidis mik þrim sinþam.

Write down the gen. of þiwi and the pret. of kann.