CORHAMPTON SAXON CHURCH AD 1020 With thanks to Cheryl Bryan, Director of Children's Education, Winchester Cathedral

The ordinary people who lived in Anglo-Saxon times, when Corhampton Church was built, did not write letters like we do today. They sometimes used shapes called 'runes' .The 'runes' and letters are shown here

ea

| FNAR | ¢RKX ∘rkg | PH * | 1+2 | K |
|--------|--------------|------|-------|---|
| f u th | orkg | whn | i j h | р |
| | M&M | | | |

| Write your name and | then | put | ʻrur | nes' | below |
|---------------------|---|-----|------|------|-------|
| Like this example | Р | е | t | e | r |
| | ~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~ | Μ | 1 | M | R |

My name is:

My runes are: